

Shalakany successfully represented Suez Steel in overruling a Cairo Administrative Court Judgement

Cairo, Egypt – Shalakany is delighted to announce its successful representation of Suez Steel in overruling the detrimental Cairo Administrative Court judgement suspending the 15% hike in import tariffs on iron billets, as issued by the Ministerial Decree No. 346 for the Year 2019.

On 12 October 2019, the High Administrative Court overruled the said judgement in favour of our client.

Mostafa Hassan, Senior Partner and Client Manager, said: “We are very pleased to have successfully represented Suez Steel in this famous case. We believe that the High Administrative Court ruling will tremendously support and promote the domestic and local production of the iron billet industry in Egypt.”
