Alpha Dhabi Holding Enters into Strategic Partnership with ADQ Through Sale of a Stake in Construction Subsidiary

- Alpha Dhabi Holding will divest a 49% stake in its subsidiary Alpha Dhabi Construction Holding to ADQ
- Partnership will bolster Alpha Dhabi Construction Holding's position as a leader in the sector through the integration into ADQ's ecosystem and support the continued development of Abu Dhabi

Abu Dhabi, UAE; April 16, 2024: Alpha Dhabi Holding PJSC ("Alpha Dhabi" or "ADH") (ADX: ALPHADHABI), a leading investment holding company in the UAE, has announced that it will divest 49% of its subsidiary Alpha Dhabi Construction Holding (ADCH) to ADQ, an Abu Dhabi-based investment and holding company.

ADH will retain a 51% shareholding in ADCH, continuing its commitment to the construction sector in strategic partnership with ADQ. The partnership will combine the expertise and capabilities of ADCH and ADQ, solidifying ADCH's position as an industry leader and an engine of the Emirate's growth.

Led by its subsidiary Trojan Construction, ADCH is recognized for its commitment to national development, prioritizing safety, quality, and timely project delivery. ADCH has a track record of contributing to the realization of iconic projects in the UAE, including the Zayed National Museum and the Guggenheim Museum, as well as supporting critical infrastructure such as the national railway network. ADCH also successfully executes large-scale residential community projects for locally based real estate developers, including Aldar, Modon Properties, and Emaar.

The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals.

Hamad Al Ameri, CEO & MD of ADH and the newly appointed Chairman of ADCH, commented, "Our partnership with ADQ is a transformative step for ADCH, marking a new era of strategic growth and innovation. With a shared vision for excellence, this collaboration allows us to deepen our commitment to national development, enabling us to tackle complex, large-scale projects with a keen focus on safety, quality, and timely delivery. Together, we are poised to set new benchmarks in the dynamic construction industry, driving progress and prosperity in our region."

Hamad Al Hammadi, Deputy Chief Executive Officer of ADQ, said, "With a longstanding focus on investing in infrastructure assets in line with our mandate, we welcome the opportunity to invest in ADCH as it enters the next phase of its impressive journey in spearheading the development of landmarks and coveted real estate developments in the UAE. We are confident that ADCH will benefit from being part of our diverse portfolio and leverage the opportunities this will unlock."

PRESS RELEASE

The size of UAE construction market is estimated at USD 41 billion in 2024 and expected to grow to over USD 50 billion by 2029. The construction industry in Abu Dhabi has been witnessing continuous expansion, growing by 14.3 percent and contributing AED 25 billion to the Emirate's GDP in the third quarter of 2023.

Significant large-scale investments in construction across Abu Dhabi provide new housing opportunities, create new employment, and contribute to the diversification of the Emirate's economy.
