

Marei Fayez Dardiry & Partners and Joseph Hage Aaronson & Bremen LLP Forge Strategic Alliance to Deliver Unmatched Legal Expertise in Egypt

Cairo, Egypt – June 17, 2025 – Marei Fayez Dardiry & Partners (MFDP), one of Egypt’s leading full-service law firms, is proud to announce a strategic collaboration with Joseph Hage Aaronson & Bremen LLP (JHAB), an internationally recognized dispute resolution and arbitration law firm headquartered in London.

This alliance marks a significant step forward in delivering integrated legal solutions to clients operating in or entering the Egyptian market. By combining MFDP’s deep-rooted local legal expertise with JHAB’s world-class international dispute avoidance and resolution capabilities, the collaboration aims to provide a seamless, high-value service offering to both domestic and international clients.

“As Egypt enters a new phase of economic expansion and international engagement, the need for sophisticated, cross-border legal support is greater than ever. This collaboration allows us to combine deep local insight with international litigation and arbitration firepower, offering our clients a seamless solution to navigate both opportunity and risk with clarity and confidence” said Hesham Fayez, Managing Partner at MFDP.

James Bremen, Presiding Partner at JHAB, added: “We are excited to be working with MFDP to provide clients in Egypt with the benefit of our world-class dispute resolution services. The combined strengths of both firms will allow us to help clients anticipate, manage, and resolve disputes with a level of precision and insight that is unmatched in the market.”

JHAB has an elite team renowned for handling high-stakes disputes in areas such as construction and engineering, tax, commercial arbitration and litigation, insolvency, and white-collar crime. Ranked Tier 1 in Legal 500 and recognized by Chambers & Partners, the firm has a proven track record in international arbitration, cross border litigation, and other alternative dispute resolution forums. In particular, the construction litigation and arbitration team has acted on matters in more than 30 jurisdictions with extensive experience in the Middle East region, including on multiple nine- and ten-figure cases.

MFDP’s expertise in corporate law, finance, banking, fintech, M&A, and regulatory matters, coupled with a profound understanding of Egypt’s legal and business landscape, ensures that clients benefit from solutions that are both globally strategic and locally grounded.

Importantly, this collaboration builds on a strong foundation of professional trust and mutual understanding. James Bremen has previously worked closely with MFDP Partners Hussein Marei and Khaled El Dardiry on high-profile international matters. Their history of successful cooperation ensures immediate alignment in values, standards, and approach.

With this offering, MFDP and JHAB aim to redefine the standard for legal services in the Egyptian and regional markets—offering agile, coordinated, and forward-looking counsel to businesses navigating today’s complex legal terrain.
