Matouk Bassiouny welcomes Khaled Diaa back as Partner to its Cairo Office

We are thrilled to welcome Khaled Diaa back as a Partner in our Corporate and M&A practice group in the Cairo office.

Khaled brings over 11 years of experience in corporate law and M&A across the MENA region. He previously held senior roles at Matouk Bassiouny & Hennawy, advising major regional and international clients. Most recently, he served as Corporate Counsel at Hill International, gaining valuable in-house experience. Furthermore, he has also contributed to legal education as a Teaching Assistant at Cairo University, and recently completed his PhD in Law, reflecting his ongoing commitment to legal scholarship.

Khaled has extensive experience advising on complex acquisitions, joint ventures, private equity, and capital markets transactions, as well as cross-border structuring, regulatory compliance, and strategic investments across a range of sectors, including technology, healthcare, financial services, and energy.

We are confident that Khaled will further strengthen our team and enhance the value we deliver to our clients.
