Dubai, UAE, 23 September 2025: Talabat Holding plc (“talabat” or the “Company”), the leading on-demand online ordering and delivery platform in the MENA region, today announced that its Board of Directors has approved the distribution of an interim dividend of 3.188 fils per share, equivalent to approximately USD 202 million in total. This interim dividend represents a 90% payout ratio of reported net income for the first half of the year.

This distribution underscores the Company’s continued commitment to delivering shareholder returns. Based on the last closing price, the interim dividend represents an annualised dividend yield that exceeds 5.4%. Management reaffirmed its expectation to pay at least USD 400 million in total dividends for the full year 2025, in line with previously communicated guidance.

While the Company has set a minimum dividend payout target, management intends to continue recommending a 90% payout ratio of reported net income for the full year. The final dividend proposal will remain subject to the recommendation of the Board of Directors and approval by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) scheduled in 2026.

Tomaso Rodriguez, Chief Executive Officer of talabat, commented: “Today’s interim dividend announcement underscores the resilience of our business and our commitment to shareholder returns. Our asset-light business model and robust cash generation enable us to distribute a substantial portion of earnings to shareholders while maintaining the financial flexibility to fund our growth strategy. We remain on track to meet or exceed our full-year dividend guidance.”

Shareholders are reminded of the key dates for this dividend. The “last day to participate” and purchase shares that will settle in time to be eligible for the dividend is Tuesday, 30 September 2025. The ex-dividend date is Wednesday, 1 October 2025, and shares purchased on or after this date will not qualify for the interim dividend. The record date, when the Company finalises the list of eligible shareholders, is Thursday, 2 October 2025. Payment of the dividend to all eligible shareholders is scheduled for Tuesday, 21 October 2025.
