

Beltone Asset Management Recognized as Egypt's Best Islamic Fund Manager by Euromoney

Cairo, 21st of September 2026 : Beltone Asset Management has been named Egypt's Best Islamic Fund Manager at the Euromoney Islamic Finance Awards 2026, recognizing its growing presence in Egypt's Islamic asset management market, disciplined investment approach, and ability to deliver Shariah-compliant investment strategies at scale.

The recognition reflects Beltone Asset Management's expanding capabilities across Islamic investment strategies, supported by institutional-grade infrastructure, robust governance, and a unified investment platform that combines disciplined portfolio management, rigorous research, structured Shariah screening, and comprehensive risk oversight.

The firm has established a growing presence in Egypt's Shariah-compliant mutual fund market, supported by expanding product capabilities and distribution reach, including digital channels. This continued development enables Beltone Asset Management to serve a broader investor base while strengthening its proposition within Egypt's evolving Islamic asset management landscape.

Beltone Asset Management offers a range of Islamic investment strategies, including equity, liquidity, and index-tracking funds. Its technology-enabled investment infrastructure supports end-to-end portfolio management, from execution and compliance to performance reporting, contributing to greater efficiency and transparency across its operations.

The Euromoney Islamic Finance Awards 2026 recognition underscores Beltone Asset Management's continued commitment to investment excellence, robust governance, and expanding access to Shariah-compliant investment solutions in Egypt.
