Terms of the Offer and its Conditions	Details of the Offer terms and conditions (including the terms and conditions listed below) will be set out in an offer document to be provided to Emaar Development and its shareholders (the Offer Document).
Emaar Properties	Emaar Properties PJSC is a public joint stock company listed on the Dubai Financial Market, established on 23 June 1997, with its registered office at P.O. Box 9440, Dubai, United Arab Emirates.
Details of the shares held by the Offeror and its subsidiary	As at the date of this Announcement, Emaar Development's total issued and paid-up share capital is AED 4,000,000,000, divided into 4,000,000,000 ordinary shares with a nominal value of AED 1 each. Emaar Properties directly holds 3,166,451,142 shares, representing 79.1613% of Emaar Development's issued and paid-up share capital. Emaar Properties' indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, EPHL, holds 40,000,000 shares, representing 1% of Emaar Development's issued and paid-up share capital. The aggregate shareholding of Emaar Properties and EPHL is therefore 3,206,451,142 shares, representing 80.1613% of Emaar Development's issued and paid-up share capital.
Details of the shares subject of the Offer	Emaar Properties (through an offer made to all shareholders of Emaar Development) intends to acquire up to 100% of the shares of the issued and paid-up share capital of Emaar Development not already owned by Emaar Properties and EPHL.
Irrevocable obligations in relation to acceptance of the Offer	As at the date of this Announcement, Emaar Properties has not sought or obtained any irrevocable undertakings pursuant to which any Emaar Development Shareholder undertook to irrevocably accept the Offer.
Details of any arrangements with Emaar Development which may have a material impact on the Offer	As at the date of this Announcement, there are no arrangements entered into between Emaar Properties and Emaar Development in relation to the implementation of the Offer.

The arrangements related to the termination fees

As at the date of this Announcement, Emaar Properties has not entered into any arrangement with Emaar Development in respect of termination fees in the event this transaction does not complete.

Purpose of the Offer, Intentions and Plans

Emaar Properties is the founder and majority shareholder of Emaar Development, which operates the group's UAE build-to-sell residential and commercial property development business and sits at the core of the group's integrated "develop and sell, retain and operate, compound and reinvest" model. The Offer is driven by strategic considerations. It would bring the UAE development business fully within the group, allowing it to be managed and funded under a single capital allocation framework, in line with Emaar Properties' established strategy of disciplined capital allocation and long-term value creation.

Acquiring the shares in Emaar Development that Emaar Properties and EPHL do not already own would allow Emaar Properties to simplify and consolidate the group's structure and to manage the domestic development business on a fully integrated basis within the wider group. Emaar Properties believes this will allow the group to: (i) allocate capital, including land bank, funding and development cash flows, under a single framework; (ii) fully integrate the development platform with the group's recurring income businesses; and (iii) remove the duplicated costs and governance requirements of maintaining a separate listing, in each case consistent with the group's broader strategic objectives.

Against this backdrop, Emaar Properties believes that the Offer provides Emaar Development's minority shareholders with a compelling opportunity to realise their investment in full, in cash and with certainty, at an attractive premium to the prevailing market price. It offers immediate liquidity, allowing shareholders to monetise their holding at once without the liquidity constraints, elongated timelines or potential market discount they might otherwise face when seeking to sell a comparable position in the market.

Compulsory acquisition (squeeze-out)

If, by the end of the offer period, the Offeror has received valid acceptances which, together with any Emaar Development shares already held by the Offeror and EPHL, give it ownership of at least ninety per cent (90%) of the issued share capital of the Company plus one (1) Share (the Squeeze-Out Threshold), the Offeror intends to use its right under Article 11 (2) of the Resolution of the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Capital Market Authority No. (18/R.M) of 2017 regarding the Rules of Acquisition and Merger of Public Joint Stock Companies, as amended (the Code) to compulsorily acquire all remaining shares held by shareholders who have not accepted the Offer (the Non-Accepting Shareholders).

The Offeror intends to start the compulsory acquisition procedure within sixty (60) days of the settlement date. Non-Accepting Shareholders whose shares in Emaar Development are compulsorily acquired will receive the same consideration per share as is paid under the Offer, in the same form and on the same terms, and that consideration will be paid in accordance with the applicable procedure prescribed by the CMA and the DFM.

Conversion to a private joint stock company and delisting

Once the compulsory acquisition is complete, the Offeror intends to:

(a) propose and vote in favour of resolutions to convert the Company from a public joint stock company into a private joint stock company, in accordance with Federal Decree-Law No. 32 of 2021 on Commercial Companies (as amended); and

(b) apply for the Company and its shares to be delisted from the DFM, in accordance with the DFM's listing rules and the requirements of the CMA. When the conversion and delisting take effect, the shares of the Company will no longer be admitted to trading on the DFM, and the Company will no longer be subject to the disclosure and governance requirements that apply to listed public joint stock companies.

If the Squeeze-Out Threshold is not reached

The Offer is not conditional on the Squeeze-Out Threshold being reached. If Emaar Properties and EPHL do not reach the Squeeze-Out Threshold, Emaar Properties still intends to complete the Offer, provided that the conditions of the Offer are satisfied or waived, and to acquire all shares validly tendered in the Offer.

Non-Accepting Shareholders should be aware that if the Offer completes but the Squeeze-Out Threshold is not reached, the number of shares of the Company held by the public (the free float) is likely to fall significantly. This may materially reduce the liquidity and marketability of the shares of the Company and may increase volatility in their trading price.

As a result, Non-Accepting Shareholders may find it harder to sell their shares in the Company in future, or may only be able to sell them at a price below the Offer Price. Emaar Properties does not guarantee that a further offer will be made for the shares of the Company, or that any such offer would be at a price equal to or higher than the Offer Price.

Emaar Properties intends to review the Company's dividend policy after the Offer completes, taking into account the Company's financial position, capital requirements, growth plans and applicable law. Non-Accepting Shareholders should note that the Company's dividend policy may change, and there is no assurance that the Company will pay dividends at the same level, or at the same frequency, as before the Offer.

Financing of the Offer and Cash Confirmation

Emaar Properties confirms that it has sufficient resources available to it to satisfy in full the cash consideration payable to Emaar Development Shareholders under the terms of the Offer.

Conditions of the Offer

The Offer is conditional upon:

(a) receipt of all required governmental, corporate, regulatory and statutory approvals, exemptions and/or waivers from the relevant governmental authorities within and outside the UAE including receipt of the final approvals from the CMA in respect of the Offer Document;

(b) provision by Emaar Development of all of the information required or requested by the CMA in relation to the Offer;

(c) the Offeror's satisfactory completion of due diligence on Emaar Development;

(d) receipt of any third-party consent which may be identified in the due diligence exercise;

(e) dispatch by Emaar Development to the Emaar Development Shareholders of the Emaar Development offeree circular;

(f) no material adverse effect having occurred prior to the date on which the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional in all material respects as provided in Article 35(2)(b) of the Code; and

(g) completion by Emaar Properties of all standard notifications and disclosures to the DFM.

It should be noted that there is no minimum threshold for acceptances and, if acceptances of less than 100% of the outstanding shares of Emaar Development have been achieved, Emaar Properties will, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions of the Offer acquire all shares tendered during the offer period.

Notice to US Shareholders

The Offer is being made for the securities of Emaar Development, a public joint stock company incorporated in the UAE and listed on the DFM, and is subject to UAE disclosure and procedural requirements, which differ from those of the United States. The Offer is being made in the United States in reliance on, and in compliance with, Section 14(e) of, and Regulation 14E under, the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), subject to the exemptions provided by Rule 14d-1(d) under the Exchange Act (Tier II), and otherwise in accordance with the requirements of the UAE Capital Market Authority and the Dubai Financial Market. Accordingly, the Offer is subject to disclosure and other procedural requirements, including with respect to withdrawal rights, the offer timetable, settlement procedures and timing of payments, that are different from those applicable under US domestic tender offer procedures and law.

The financial information referred to in this document has been prepared in accordance with IFRS and may not be comparable to the financial statements of US companies. It may be difficult for US holders of shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising under US federal securities laws, since Offeror and Emaar Development are located outside the United States and some or all of their officers and directors are residents of countries other than the United States. US holders may not be able to sue a non-US company or its officers or directors in a non-US court for violations of US securities laws, and it may be difficult to compel a non-US company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a US court's judgment.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Offer by a US holder may be a taxable transaction for US federal income tax purposes and under applicable state, local and non-US tax laws. Each holder is urged to consult its independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences of accepting the Offer.

The Offer consideration will be paid in UAE dirhams.

Neither the US Securities and Exchange Commission nor any US state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the Offer or passed upon the adequacy or completeness of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

EMAAR

LETTER FROM EMAAR PROPERTIES PJSC (EMAAR PROPERTIES)

Date: 5 November 2026

OFFER FOR YOUR SHARES IN EMAAR DEVELOPMENT PJSC

Dear Emaar Development Shareholder,

1. Background and Purpose of the Offer, Intentions and Plans

On 5 November 2026, Emaar Properties announced its firm intention to make a voluntary cash offer to acquire up to 100% of the issued and paid-up share capital of Emaar Development PJSC (Emaar Development) that Emaar Properties and Emirates Property Holdings Limited (EPHL) do not already own (the Offer).

Emaar Properties PJSC directly holds 3,166,451,142 shares, representing 79.1613% of the issued and paid-up share capital of Emaar Development. Emaar Properties' indirect wholly owned subsidiary, EPHL, holds 40,000,000 shares, representing 1% of the issued and paid-up share capital of Emaar Development. Emaar Properties and EPHL therefore together hold 3,206,451,142 shares, representing 80.1613% of the issued and paid-up share capital of Emaar Development. The Offer is being made in respect of the remaining shares of Emaar Development (the Offer Shares).

Emaar Properties is the founder and majority shareholder of Emaar Development, which operates the group's UAE build-to-sell residential and commercial property development business and sits at the core of the group's integrated "develop and sell, retain and operate, compound and reinvest" model. The Offer is driven by strategic considerations. It would bring the UAE development business fully within the group, allowing it to be managed and funded under a single capital allocation framework, in line with Emaar Properties' established strategy of disciplined capital allocation and long-term value creation.

Acquiring the Emaar Development Shares that Emaar Properties and EPHL do not already own would allow Emaar Properties to simplify and consolidate the group's structure and to manage the domestic development business on a fully integrated basis within the wider group. Emaar Properties believes this will allow the group to: (i) allocate capital, including land bank, funding and development cash flows, under a single framework; (ii) fully integrate the development platform with the group's recurring income businesses; and (iii) remove the duplicated costs and governance requirements of maintaining a separate listing, in each case consistent with the group's broader strategic objectives.

Against this backdrop, Emaar Properties believes that the Offer provides Emaar Development's minority shareholders with a compelling opportunity to realise their investment in full, in cash and with certainty, at an attractive premium to the prevailing market price. It offers immediate liquidity, allowing shareholders to monetise their holding at once without the liquidity constraints, elongated timelines or potential market discount they might otherwise face when seeking to sell a comparable position in the market.

Compulsory acquisition (squeeze-out)

If, by the end of the Offer Period, the Offeror has received valid acceptances which, together with any Emaar Development Shares already held by the Offeror and EPHL, give it ownership of at least ninety per cent (90%) of the issued share capital of the Company plus one (1) Share (the Squeeze-Out Threshold), the Offeror intends to use its right under Article 11 (2) of the Resolution of the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Capital Market Authority No. (18/R.M) of 2017 regarding the Rules of Acquisition and Merger of Public Joint Stock Companies, as amended to compulsorily acquire all remaining shares held by shareholders who have not accepted the Offer (the Non-Accepting Shareholders).

The Offeror intends to start the compulsory acquisition procedure within sixty (60) days of the Settlement Date. Non-Accepting Shareholders whose shares are compulsorily acquired will receive the same consideration per share as is paid under the Offer, in the same form and on the same terms, and that consideration will be paid in accordance with the applicable procedure prescribed by the CMA and the DFM.

Conversion to a private joint stock company and delisting

Once the compulsory acquisition is complete, the Offeror intends to: (a) propose and vote in favour of resolutions to convert the Company from a public joint stock company into a private joint stock company, in accordance with Federal Decree-Law No. 32 of 2021 on Commercial Companies (as amended); and (b) apply for the Company and its shares to be delisted from the DFM, in accordance with the DFM's listing rules and the requirements of the CMA. When the conversion and delisting take effect, the Shares will no longer be admitted to trading on the DFM, and the Company will no longer be subject to the disclosure and governance requirements that apply to listed public joint stock companies.

If the Squeeze-Out Threshold is not reached

The Offer is not conditional on the Squeeze-Out Threshold being reached. If Emaar Properties and EPHL do not reach the Squeeze-Out Threshold, Emaar Properties still intends to complete the Offer, provided that the Conditions are satisfied or waived, and to acquire all Shares validly tendered.

Non-Accepting Shareholders should be aware that if the Offer completes but the Squeeze-Out Threshold is not reached, the number of Shares held by the public (the free float) is likely to fall significantly. This may materially reduce the liquidity and marketability of the Shares and may increase volatility in their trading price.

As a result, Non-Accepting Shareholders may find it harder to sell their Shares in future, or may only be able to sell them at a price below the Offer Price. Emaar Properties does not guarantee that a further offer will be made for the Shares, or that any such offer would be at a price equal to or higher than the Offer Price.

Emaar Properties intends to review the Company's dividend policy after the Offer completes, taking into account the Company's financial position, capital requirements, growth plans and applicable law. Non-Accepting Shareholders should note that the Company's dividend policy may change, and there is no assurance that the Company will pay dividends at the same level, or at the same frequency, as before the Offer.

2. Key Terms of the Offer

Under the terms of the Offer, Emaar Properties is offering:

AED 15 in cash for each Emaar Development Share

As at 5 November 2026, the Offer Price represents:

(i) 19.4% premium to the closing share price of AED 12.56 per share on 2 November 2026, being the last trading day before the Board meeting announcement;

(ii) 21.7% premium to the 1-week Volume Weighted Average Price (VWAP) of AED 12.32 per share as of 2 November 2026, being the last trading day before the Board meeting announcement;

(iii) 18.6% premium to the 1-month Volume Weighted Average Price (VWAP) of AED 12.65 per share as of 2 November 2026, being the last trading day before the Board meeting announcement;

(v) 3.3% premium to the closing share price of AED 14.52 per share as of 5 November 2026; and

(vi) 148.8% premium to the subscription price of Emaar Development's shares prior to its listing on the DFM in November 2017, which was AED 6.03 per share.

3. Conditions to the Offer

The Offer is conditional upon the satisfaction (or waiver, where applicable) of the Conditions set out in paragraph 6 of Section I (General Information and Details of the Offer) of this Offer Document.

If the Conditions are not satisfied (or, where applicable, waived), the Offer will lapse and no Emaar Development Shareholder will be entitled to receive the Offer Price, including those Emaar Development Shareholders who have already submitted an Acceptance and Transfer Form. No interest shall accrue on the Offer Price.

4. Action to be Taken

To accept the Offer, you should follow the instructions set out in the section headed "To Accept the Offer" of this Offer Document. Acceptances must be received by no later than 3:00PM (UAE time) on Thursday 10 December 2026.

Emaar Development Shareholders are advised to read the whole of this Offer Document and the Acceptance and Transfer Form and not rely solely on this letter.

5. Procedures for Accepting the Offer

Each Emaar Development Shareholder must ensure that the Acceptance and Transfer Form is received by the Lead Receiving Bank no later than 3:00PM (UAE time) on the Closing Date.

An Emaar Development Shareholder submitting an electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form thereby authorises the Lead Receiving Bank to retrieve that shareholder's investor details from the DFM in order to submit the electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form on its behalf and to arrange for the cash consideration to be received through the relevant payment method registered against that shareholder with Dubai CSD.

Submission of an electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form will be treated as sufficient to satisfy the shareholder identification (know-your-client) requirements and, accordingly, an Emaar Development Shareholder submitting an electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form will not be required to provide any further supporting documentation of the kind required when submitting a paper Acceptance and Transfer Form.

5.2 General Terms

By submitting an Acceptance and Transfer Form, an Emaar Development Shareholder:

(a) accepts the Offer in respect of the number of Emaar Development Shares specified in the Acceptance and Transfer Form (or, if no number is specified, in respect of all Emaar Development Shares held by such shareholder). If a lower number of Emaar Development Shares is available in the depository account linked to its investor number at Dubai CSD, Emaar Properties and the Lead Receiving Bank reserve the right to accept the Acceptance and Transfer Form in respect of such lower number of Emaar Development Shares;

(b) agrees that its appointed brokers may transfer all its Emaar Development Shares to Dubai CSD which will freeze such shares;

(c) agrees to transfer to Emaar Properties all right, title and interest in and to such Emaar Development Shares;

(d) authorises and instructs Dubai CSD to transfer such Emaar Development Shares to Emaar Properties' account with Dubai CSD;

(e) authorises Emaar Properties and its agents to act on the accepting shareholder's behalf in connection with the Offer; and

(f) acknowledges and agrees that, for its Emaar Development Shares to be accepted under the Offer, any pledge, charge, lien or other encumbrance over those Emaar Development Shares must be released no later than the Business Day immediately preceding the Closing Date, and undertakes to procure that release by such date (whatever the encumbrance may be), including by doing all things and making all payments or arrangements necessary to satisfy the relevant pledgee, secured lender or broker, and irrevocably authorises its broker, custodian, pledgee or secured lender and Dubai CSD to release that encumbrance and transfer those Emaar Development Shares to Emaar Properties against payment of the Offer Price, and to enter into any further arrangement (including any tri-party arrangement) as Emaar Properties or Dubai CSD reasonably requires to that end.

5.3 Representations and Warranties

By accepting the Offer, each Emaar Development Shareholder represents, undertakes, warrants and acknowledges that:

(a) such shareholder is the registered holder of, or is authorised to accept the Offer in respect of, the Emaar Development Shares specified in the Acceptance and Transfer Form;

(b) such shareholder irrevocably agrees that its available data in the DFM and Dubai CSD database be shared with the Lead Receiving Bank, the Lead Manager and the Co-Lead Manager;

(f) acceptance of the Offer does not violate any applicable law, regulation, order or agreement to which such shareholder is subject;

(g) such shareholder authorises the Lead Receiving Bank, the Lead Manager and the Co-Lead Manager to send an order to block the Emaar Development Shares indicated on the Acceptance and Transfer Form to the Dubai CSD on their behalf. Such Emaar Development Shares shall be blocked from any form of disposal until the completion of the Offer and the payment of the Offer consideration;

(h) such shareholder authorises Dubai CSD to execute the received order on behalf of the Emaar Development Shareholder through the Lead Receiving Bank, the Lead Manager and the Co-Lead Manager, and to block the Emaar Development Shares indicated on the Acceptance and Transfer Form from any form of disposal until the completion of the Offer and the payment of the Offer consideration. If an Emaar Development Shareholder transfers any or all of its Emaar Development Shares to a third party after submitting an Acceptance and Transfer Form but prior to its Emaar Development Shares being blocked, their Acceptance and Transfer Form in respect of such transferred Emaar Development Shares will be deemed invalid and it will not have accepted the Offer in respect of such transferred Emaar Development Shares;

(i) such shareholder acknowledges the Lead Receiving Bank will compile and maintain a record of Emaar Development Shareholders who accept the Offer (the Acceptance Register), identifying the relevant shareholders, the number of Emaar Development Shares accepted and the applicable investor details, and will deliver the Acceptance Register to Dubai CSD promptly after the Closing Date and before the Unconditional Date;

(j) such shareholder acknowledges that the Offeror and the Lead Receiving Bank reserve the right to reject any Acceptance and Transfer Forms if:

  (i) the Acceptance and Transfer Form is not completed in all respects or is completed with incorrect information;

(k) such shareholder acknowledges that the Offeror and the Lead Receiving Bank reserve the right to accept, at their sole discretion, duly completed Acceptance and Transfer Forms where the information set out in the Acceptance and Transfer Forms has not been provided in its entirety, but sufficient information and documentation has been provided or otherwise procured to comply with all applicable laws and regulations associated with 'know-your-client' and anti-money laundering requirements and other laws and regulations applicable to the Offeror and the Offer have been complied with;

(l) such shareholder agrees to execute all such other documents and do all such other acts and things as may in the opinion of the Offeror be necessary or expedient for the purpose of, or in connection with, the acceptance of the Offer pursuant to the Acceptance and Transfer Form and to vest the Emaar Development Shares in the Offeror or as the Offeror may direct; and

(m) such shareholder acknowledges their Emaar Development Shares will be transferred to the Offeror on the Settlement Date, however, such shareholder will not receive the consideration for their Emaar Development Shares unless and until they have provided a registered valid payment method with Dubai CSD on the DFM (www.dfm.ae), and payment of the consideration may be withheld by Dubai CSD until that payment method has been provided.

In order to be effective, a physical Acceptance and Transfer Form must, except as described below, be signed personally by the registered holder. A company may execute an Acceptance and Transfer Form in accordance with its constitutional documents and applicable laws and regulations. By completing and signing an Acceptance and Transfer Form, the relevant registered holder is deemed to accept the Offer in relation to the Emaar Development Shares indicated on the Acceptance and Transfer Form.

1. If you have sold or transferred, or wish to sell or transfer, Emaar Development Shares

   If you have sold or otherwise transferred all of your Emaar Development Shares (as applicable) please send the Offer Document together with the accompanying documents at once to the purchaser or transferee or to the stockbroker, bank or other agent through whom the sale or transfer was effected for transmission to the purchaser or transferee. However, the Offer Document is not being published or distributed, and should not be forwarded or transmitted in or into or to, any Restricted Jurisdiction. If you have sold or otherwise transferred part only of your holding of Emaar Development Shares, you should retain these documents.

   In the event that you submit either (i) an electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form or (ii) an Acceptance and Transfer Form, you irrevocably authorise the Lead Receiving Bank to send a share freezing order on your behalf to Dubai CSD in respect of your Emaar Development Shares being accepted for the Offer, which Dubai CSD will execute in order to freeze your Emaar Development Shares indicated on either (i) the electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form or (ii) the Acceptance and Transfer Form available in the depository account. If you transfer any or all of your Emaar Development Shares to a third party after submitting either (i) an electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form or (ii) an Acceptance and Transfer Form but prior to your Emaar Development Shares being blocked, your electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form or Acceptance and Transfer Form in respect of such transferred Emaar Development Shares will be deemed invalid and you will not have accepted the Offer in respect of such transferred Emaar Development Shares.

   Note: If the Emaar Development Shares indicated on either (i) the electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form or (ii) the Acceptance and Transfer Form are not available in the depository account, Dubai CSD will inform the Lead Receiving Bank of this, and you will be required to issue instructions to your broker to transfer the indicated Emaar Development Shares to your depository account with Dubai CSD. Dubai CSD will freeze the indicated Emaar Development Shares when they become available after receiving written instructions from the Lead Receiving Bank. If a lower number of Emaar Development Shares is available in the depository account, Emaar Properties and the Lead Receiving Bank reserve the right to accept the Acceptance and Transfer Form in respect of such lower number of Emaar Development Shares.

2. If the sole shareholder has died

   The personal representative(s) or the prospective personal representative(s) should approach Dubai CSD at the DFM as soon as possible to update the relevant DFM register and to transfer the Emaar Development Shares from the name of the deceased investor to the relevant heir(s) before such heir(s) can accept the Offer. Once the DFM's register is updated, the personal representative(s) or prospective personal representative(s) should sign the Acceptance and Transfer Form in accordance with its terms.

3. If the Acceptance and Transfer Form is signed under a power of attorney, by a legal guardian or by an endowment authority

   The completed Acceptance and Transfer Form must be accompanied by the original power of attorney (or a notarised (and, if applicable, a legalised and protocolised) copy thereof).

   Where the signatory is the guardian of a minor Emaar Development Shareholder, the following must be submitted: (i) original and copy of the guardian's passport or Emirates ID for verification of signature; (ii) original and copy of the minor's passport or Emirates ID; and (iii) if the guardian is appointed by the court, original and copy of the guardianship deed attested by the court and other competent authorities (e.g. notary public).

   Where the Acceptance and Transfer Form is signed by any other person on behalf of an Emaar Development Shareholder, it must be accompanied by the original and a copy of the document authorising that person to sign on behalf of, and to represent, the Emaar Development Shareholder and to accept the terms of the Offer Document and this Acceptance and Transfer Form.

4. If any of your Emaar Development Shares are pledged or subject to any form of security (including those Emaar Development Shares subject to court order and in margin accounts of brokers)

   Prior to submitting an electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form or an Acceptance and Transfer Form in respect of Emaar Development Shares which are pledged or subject to any form of security (including those Emaar Development Shares subject to court order and/or in margin accounts of brokers) you must contact the bank, broker or any third party in whose favour the Emaar Development Shares have been pledged or any other security or attachment (including court order) has been granted and obtain the release from such pledge or any other security or attachment.

   In order for your Emaar Development Shares to be accepted under the Offer, any pledge, charge, lien or other encumbrance over any of your Emaar Development Shares must be released no later than the Business Day immediately preceding the Closing Date, and you undertake to procure that release by such date (whatever the encumbrance may be), including by doing all things and making all payments or arrangements necessary to satisfy the relevant pledgee, secured lender or broker, and irrevocably authorise your broker, custodian, pledgee or secured lender and the Dubai CSD to release that encumbrance and transfer those Emaar Development Shares to Emaar Properties against payment of the Offer Price, and to enter into any further arrangement (including any tri-party arrangement) as Emaar Properties or the Dubai CSD reasonably requires to that end.

5. If you want to submit electronically

   Emaar Development Shareholders may submit an electronic Acceptance and Transfer Form at https://ipo.emiratesnbd.com/en/emaardev.

6. Warranties

By signing the Acceptance and Transfer Form, you (as an Emaar Development Shareholder or on behalf of an Emaar Development Shareholder) hereby accept all the undertakings, representations, warranties and agreements with the Offeror set out below (so as to bind him/her, his/her personal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns):

(a) that the acceptance shall constitute, in respect of the number of Emaar Development Shares to which the relevant acceptance relates:

(i) an acceptance of the Offer on and subject to the terms and conditions set out or referred to herein, in the Offer Document and the Acceptance and Transfer Form;

(ii) an undertaking to execute any further documents and give any further assurances which may be required to enable the Offeror to obtain the full benefits of the terms of the Offer Document and the Acceptance and Transfer Form and/or to perfect any authorities expressed to be given thereunder (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any documentation required for the purposes of the Offeror's compliance with its "know your customer" requirements and procedures);

(iii) a representation and warranty that you are the legal and / or beneficial owner of such Emaar Development Shares or, if you are not, that you are irrevocably and unconditionally entitled to transfer such shares and that the entire beneficial interest therein will be acquired under the Offer; and

(iv) if you are accepting this Offer on behalf of a registered holder(s), a representation and warranty that you are duly authorised by the registered holder(s) to accept this Offer on his/her behalf;

(b) that the Emaar Development Shares in respect of which the Offer is accepted or deemed to be accepted are sold free from all liens, charges, equities, encumbrances, options, rights of pre-emption and other third party rights of any nature whatsoever and together with all rights now and hereafter attaching or accruing to them;

(c) that you have not received or sent copies or originals of this document or any other document relating to the Offer, in, into or from a Restricted Jurisdiction and you have not otherwise utilised in connection with the Offer, directly or indirectly, the mail of or any means or instrumentality (including, without limitation, facsimile transmission, electronic mail or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or any facilities of a national securities exchange of, a Restricted Jurisdiction at the time of the input and settlement of the relevant acceptance(s); and in respect of the Emaar Development Shares to which an acceptance relates, you are not an agent or fiduciary acting on a non-discretionary basis for a principal, unless you are an authorised employee of such principal or such principal has given all instructions with respect to the Offer from outside a Restricted Jurisdiction;

(d) that you have not taken or omitted to take any action which will or may result in the Offeror or any other person acting in breach of any legal or regulatory requirements of any territory in connection with the Offer or your acceptance thereof;

(e) that, if you accept the Offer, you will do all such acts and things in your control as shall be necessary or expedient to vest the aforesaid Emaar Development Shares in the Offeror or its nominee(s) or such other persons as the Offeror may decide;

(f) that you agree to ratify each and every act or thing which may be done or effected by the Offeror or any director of the Offeror or their respective agents, or Emaar Development or its agents, as the case may be, in the exercise of any of your powers and/or authorities under this paragraph 6 in relation to your Emaar Development Shares (as relevant);

(g) that you submit, in relation to all matters arising out of or in connection with the Offer and the acceptance, to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Dubai and you agree that nothing shall limit the rights of the Offeror to bring any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the Offer and acceptance in any other manner permitted by law or in any court of competent jurisdiction;

(h) that if any part of this paragraph 6 shall be unenforceable or invalid or shall not operate so as to afford the Offeror or any director of the Offeror or their respective agents the benefit or authority expressed to be given therein, you shall with all practicable speed do all such acts and things and execute all such documents in your control that may be required to enable the Offeror and/or any director of the Offeror and/or any of their respective agents to secure the full benefits of this document and the Acceptance and Transfer Form; and

(i) subject to the Offer becoming unconditional in all respects, that the execution of the Acceptance and Transfer Form and its delivery (whether by you as registered holder or by your attorney, legal guardian, personal representative or other duly authorised representative) constitutes the appointment of the Offeror as your agent or attorney with an instruction to the attorney to:

i. complete and execute all or any form(s) of transfer and/or other document in the attorney's discretion in relation to the Emaar Development Shares referred to in paragraph 6 (a) of these Terms and Conditions in favour of the Offeror or as the Offeror may direct;
